

YOU WON'T TALK

By Allan James

Doors to Somewhere

I want to know why you're dancing without me,
I want to know if you love me anymore,
Life goes on and there's no time to be wasting,
We've got to love before the midnights too late,

You can say anything,
You can tell me your troubles... I will listen,
You can say anything,
You can tell me how you really feel... no...

*You won't talk to me but I thought I heard you cry,
You won't talk to me and I feel like I could die,
You won't talk to me and I don't know why,
You won't talk to me... say the words I long to hear...*

We can rise above this feeling we're having,
We can rise above this all these clouds,
We can be like lovers on an island,
We've got to show all the love that is locked in our hearts,

You can say anything,
You can tell me your troubles...I will listen,
You can say anything,
You can tell me how you really feel... no...

*You won't talk to me but I thought I heard you cry,
You won't talk to me and I feel like I could die,
You won't talk to me and I don't know why,
You won't talk to me... say the words I long to hear...*

We used to be laughing, smiling and loving,
We used to feel like time was on our side,
Now we're caught in all this whirlwind around us,
We've got to break all the chains that are wrapped around our hearts,
